Reflection: Today's readings unveil the profound mystery of the Holy Trinity – God's boundless love mercy and unity. In the first reading, God reveals Himself as merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love, inviting us to place our trust in His compassion. The prayer in Daniel 3:52-56 extols God's glory, calling upon all creation to bless His holy name. In the Second Reading, St. Paul invokes the Trinity, exhorting believers to live in peace and unity, enriched by the grace of Christ, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit. The Gospel passage, John 3:16-18, encapsulates the heart of today's message: God, in His infinite love, sent His Son not to condemn the world, but to bring salvation to all. These readings invite us to marvel at the love of the Trinity, to live in gratitude for the gift of salvation, and to reflect on God's unity and mercy in our relationships with others.
