Thank you to all who donate to our parish
family of Christ the King!
Thank you!

On All Soul's Day we remember the people who have returned to Our Heavenly Father.

Take some time to remember deceased relatives with your children: share stories or look at photos. Pray with our children for the souls of those people who have returned to Heaven.

Reflection: What can the living do for the dead? The faithful departed who need to undergo purification can no longer help themselves. They rely on our prayerful support. We, who are counted among the living, have the responsibility of interceding for our deceased friends and family members. We are often tempted to focus on organising a befitting funeral for our beloved. Our prayers for the repose souls pave the way for them to access the mercy of our shepherd, our Lord Jesus Christ. The transition of a Christian, a beneficiary of mercy, is not an end, but a beginning of eternal life. May the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace.
