Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time- Sunday, September 28, 2025

We would like to invite you to offer the precious gift of prayer. What better way than to offer up a mass for the special people in your life.

Not only will a mass be said for them, you will also be reminding them of your faith in our Lord Jesus Christ.

Mass request envelopes are available at the entrances of the church or you can contact the parish office. Mass intention cards are available in the parish office.

God wants us to be honest. Even though there are times when this can be difficult, He wants us to be truthful, always. If we are honest about little things in life, we will be honest about everything else.

Reflection: St. John Chrysostom once said, "If you cannot find Jesus Christ in the poor man at the entrance of the church, never expect to see Him in the chalice on the altar." God placed his asset in the person of the poor man covered with sores at the very gate of the rich man, but the 'asset of God' was missing on the pages of the rich man. The rich man demonstrated absolute indifference to the needs of the poor man. He was blinded by his riches and comfort to take a look at a human being who sat at his gate begging for alms. The best religion is taking care of the poor, widows, orphans and strangers. When we fail to take care of the 'assets of God', we must not expect to reap the fruits of blessings and mercy as demanded by the rich man after his death. 'God's Word, Daily Reflections 2025'
