Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time - September 22, 2024

Father Raymond will be away on vacation from September 9th to October 18th. Msgr. Jim Hutton will preside over masses in Father Raymond's absence. Please pray for Father Raymond that he has a safe and wonderful trip!

We live in a competitive world. Everyone wants to be first. Jesus said that to be first in heaven, we must put everyone else first. Pray with our children for the grace to put others ahead of us, always.

The Liturgy of the Word Program, for school-aged children, will begin on Sunday, October 20, 2024 during the 10:15 a.m. Mass.

PARISH BREAKFAST!

Confessions

LAST FRIDAY OF EVERY MONTH

1:00pm – 2:00pm

Next confession date:

Fri. September 27th, 2024

Reflection: Ambition, drive, success and winning are the themes of the world today.

And our teaching from Christ today seems contradictory, "If anyone wants to be first, they must make themselves last of all." The message does not fit with the way we see the world work. We are told that the disciples had been arguing over who was the greatest. Our society tells us that being right, being first, being the best is all-important. But society is wrong. There is nothing good or important about being first; however, there is only one thing bad about being right, or first or best, and that one thing is doing something just to be right or just to be best or just to be first. We are called to be gentle and are called to endure. We are called to bring peace to conflict. As James tells us, the seeds of the peacemaker will bear fruit in holiness. Jesus tells us to be the servant of all. 'God's Word, Daily Reflections 2024'
