PASTOR'S DESK

2ND SUNDAY OF EASTER - APRIL 7, 2024

Christ is Risen! Indeed, he has risen!

My dear friends in Christ,

I would like to express my profound thanks to all who participated in the Paschal Triduum last week – the liturgies, music, decorations, and fellowship were truly magnificent. The number of our brothers and sisters who attended was overwhelming! To Fathers Paul and Ivica, thank you so much for your support and priestly zeal for our people. To Delia and Mary Catherine, thank you for the countless hours of service you give to the Lord through his holy people. To our administrative assistants, Catherine and Blanca, who keep the “wheels on the bus” for your patience and hard work - thank you. To Gary, our business administrator, thank you for your wisdom and steady hand. To Sherry, our bookkeeper, thanks for keeping the lights on and paying our bills – for your meticulous work! Thanks to our custodians, Guillermo, Peter, and Suzette, for keeping our Churches beautiful. Geraldine, who keeps us well-fed, thanks. To the Lectors, Servers, Ushers, Counters, Eucharistic Ministers, Social Committee Members, and Sunday Coffee Providers, all who played a role in our liturgies – many thanks.

Today, in the Gospel, we recall Thomas' doubt. I believe it is quite normal to want to touch the Lord. We want to be embraced, to see the Lord whom we love face to face. Thomas expresses what we may feel at times: “Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nail marks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe.”

The first thing that Jesus gives to his frightened disciples is “Shalom”—peace. He then breathes on them the Holy Spirit (giving them strength and courage—all of the Spirit's gifts) and gives them the gift of Divine Mercy. “Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained.”

Thomas touches for us the glorified wounds of the saviour, and we utter along with him, “My Lord and my God.” Thank you, St. Thomas, for voicing your doubts and fears so that we, too, could voice our faith with you – “My Lord and My God.”

Happy Easter Season.

Rev. Christopher Bourdeau
