MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR, FATHER CHRISTOPHER
FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 2026

The "Beatitudes" given to us by the Lord are to be a way of life for us - a measuring stick for our attitudes and actions - do they conform to Christ?

Jesus taught from the Mountain, the figure of the New Moses, the New Lawgiver or rather the perfecter of the Old Law in the New.

"The poor in Spirit" – those who are humble, utterly reliant on God.

"Those who mourn" – for the injustice that they see, the sin they see.

"The meek" – those who are supple in the hands of God.

"Those who hunger and thirst for righteousness" – who thirst for God's will to be done.

"The merciful" – those who have experienced God's mercy in their lives and wish to be an instrument of His mercy to others.

"The pure of heart" – those who have God enthroned in the center of their hearts.

"Persecuted for righteousness' sake" – count the cost. Following Christ will cost us.

But our reward will be great in heaven.

I am on vacation until February 10th. Have a great week!

Remember we have Mass on Monday, February 2 at 10am at St. Justin Martyr for Candlemas (the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord).

In Christ,

Rev. Christopher Bourdeau

Exodus 90: An Invitation to Freedom

Men of the parish are invited to consider joining Exodus 90, a proven spiritual journey that has helped men all over the world grow in daily prayer, asceticism, and Christian fraternity.

This ninety-day path, modeled on the Israelites' journey to freedom, offers men the chance to experience greater interior freedom, stronger discipline, and deeper friendships.

Our parish fraternity will meet every Monday evening:

- 1st & 3rd Mondays: St. Francis–St. Martin parish basement
- 2nd & 4th Mondays: centrally located private homes

The Exodus 90 app provides daily Scripture-based meditations in English and Spanish, guided reflections, and practical support for the journey.

Any man looking to strengthen his faith and re-ignite his spiritual life before Lent is warmly invited to join us.

Diocesan Family Summit
