MESSAGE FROM OUR ASSOCIATE PASTOR, FATHER PAUL
SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 2026
The New Moses and the Season of New Hearts

Dear Family of Faith,

This Sunday, Jesus takes us up the mountain once again. And like a new Moses (though greater than Moses) He hands us not tablets of stone, but something far more astonishing: the law of the heart.

In Matthew 5.17-37, the Lord doesn't abolish the Law, He fulfills it, He stretches it, deepens it, lifts it from our hands all the way into our interior life. He essentially says: "You have heard... but I say to you..."

It's as if Jesus is preparing us for Lent by giving us a spiritual upgrade. He moves us from "You shall not kill" to "Let go of anger," from "Do not commit adultery" to "Guard your gaze," from legal correctness to inner conversion.

And just in time, because Lent is around the corner, waiting to meet us like a wise spiritual trainer who says, "Alright ... ready to strengthen those spiritual muscles we've been neglecting?"

If Advent is the season of expectation, then Lent is the season of transformation. But transformation does not happen by accident. Grace builds on desire.

So, as we stand at the threshold of this holy season, let's not begin Lent reluctantly, but intentionally, joyfully, even boldly. The new Moses has spoken. The new law has been placed in our hands. And Lent is the workshop where the Spirit shapes it inside our hearts.

May this coming season be for us what Jesus intends it to be: a time of honest growth, gentle healing, surprising grace, and rediscovered beauty. And who knows? If we let Jesus finish what He has begun, this might just be the most beautiful Lent we've ever lived.

In Christ our Lawgiver and our Light,

Rev. Fr. Paul Okoth Auma
