PENTECOST VIGIL AND ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

Join us on Saturday June 7th at all of our parishes as we celebrate the Vigil of Pentecost. Vigils are liturgical celebrations held the evening before certain Solemnities, and the practice goes back to the early days of the Church. Pentecost is one of seven Solemnities where a Vigil may be celebrated. These Vigil Masses differ slightly from the Mass on the Solemnity itself, usually taking on a more solemn character, and using additional scripture readings and prayers unique to the Vigil. Please note that these Saturday evening masses will be longer than usual.

 Mass begins at 4:30pm at St. Justin Martyr (English),
6:00pm at St. Leopold Mandic (Croatian), and 6:30pm at St. Francis-St. Martin (Bilingual), with Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament following Mass.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED CATHOLIC HOSPITAL MINISTRY

For many decades we, the Church, have provided Catholic service and sacraments to our Catholic institutions. We continue, with your support and prayers, to serve 7 days a week, around the clock care as best we can. The two Catholic chaplains and four spiritual care practitioners at our sites have identified the following needs and are seeking some volunteers to help us:

- We need a total of 6 porters to bring residents to mass -Tuesday and Wednesday mornings.
- We could use a musician for hymn sing on Monday afternoon. (1-2 pm at Parkwood Hospital) or for Mass on Tuesday and Wednesday.
- We could use a part- time sacristan for when our sacristan is away. (for two sites)
- Veterans' hospital has been without Eucharistic ministers for four years and we could greatly use some help in that regard.

As well, we have approximately 50 residents come to mass at Mount Hope Long-Term Care home (near St Joseph's hospital) each week. There are over 100 Catholic residents there, but we can only accommodate 50 at each mass. Both staff and two volunteers struggle to get people to the chapel for mass.

To volunteer, contact Fr. Dan Vere dvere@dol.ca | 519-868-7757 or Lisa Squires 519-646-6100 Ext. 47541

Volunteer screening required. Thank you for your support!
