The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, Cycle C

Today is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. At one time, this day was called Corpus Christi, Latin for “the Body of Christ.” The feeding of the 5,000 is the only one of Jesus' miracles to appear in all four Gospels. In Luke the feeding is not the consequence of Jesus' compassion for the crowd but is instigated by the disciples. They wanted Jesus to send the crowd away to town. Instead Jesus tells the disciples to give them some food on their own.

The passage is meant to remind us of two feedings in the Old Testament: the feeding of the Israelites in the desert and Elisha's feeding of 100 people with 20 loaves in 2 Kings 4:42-44. It is also connected to the institution of the Eucharist. As in the Last Supper accounts in Matthew, Mark, and Luke and in Paul's account in 1 Corinthians 11:23-24, Jesus takes bread, looks up to heaven, blesses the bread, breaks it, and then gives it to the disciples. In using this exact language, Luke is reminding his readers that in this miracle Jesus is doing more than feeding hungry people as God did for the Israelites and the prophet Elisha did as well.

The bread he gives is his body, which he will continue to give as often as the community breaks bread in remembrance of him in the Eucharist. The Eucharist is essentially and of its very nature a community action in which every person present is expected to be an active participant. There is no place in Christianity for individualism. It is a horizontal faith: we go to God with and through those around us.

On this, the feast of Corpus Christi, take a moment to give thanks to God for this wonderful gift given to us... Fr. Mario
