3RD SUNDAY IN LENT, CYCLE C

Our Sunday Gospel prepares us to hear Lent's call to conversion and repentance. Today's reading describe Jesus' journey to Jerusalem and during this journey, Jesus teaches and heals. Throughout his journey to Jerusalem, Jesus has been teaching about the Kingdom of God; therefore in this parable, we find an image of God's patience and hopefulness as he prepares his Kingdom.

God calls us to repent. He delays punishment and tends to us so that we may yet bear the fruit he needs from us. This, then, is our reason for hope. Not only does God refuse to abandon us, he chooses to attend to us even when we show no evidence of his efforts.

The parable of the unfertile fig tree contrasts the patience and hopefulness of the gardener with the practicality of the property owner. When told to cut down the fig tree because it is not producing fruit, the gardener advises patience. If properly tended, the barren fig tree may yet bear fruit.

We want to thank the communication team for all their efforts in this transition. We can produce good fruits, when we work together. You too are part of all this process for building a faith community.

This weekend you will receive :

1. First edition of "In transition" Newsletter
2. A letter from Fr. Christopher
3. A paper copy of the survey
4. A link to the online survey

We encourage you to participate actively in this process and fill in the online survey.

WE ARE IN NEED OF SACRISTANS AND ALTAR SERVERS

In parish life, one of the roles that is rarely seen by parishioners is that of a sacristan. It is a "behind-the-scenes" position that makes the priest's job on Sundays and weekdays less stressful.

The General Instruction of the Roman Missal explains, "the following also exercise(s) a liturgical function: The sacristan, who carefully arranges the liturgical books, the vestments, and other things necessary in the celebration of the Mass" (No. 105).

In the medieval Church this task was often completed by the doorkeeper, who lived close to the parish church. For many centuries the sacristan, especially in monastic communities, was a younger priest or seminarian in minor orders. However, as the Church expanded to far-off regions of the world with solitary missionary priests, the laity or religious women would be given the important task.

In the past few hundred years there also arose "Altar Societies", where members of the parish join together in assisting the priest with whatever is needed for the liturgy. It is an essential service in the parish. The sacristan keeps the liturgical items for Mass, opens and closes the Church, etc.

Sacristans are always needed, and it is a way to serve the Church in a less public way. Training would be provided and a "job" description. Sound interesting, please contact Catherine Leach (cleach@dol) or Delia Pardo (dpardo@dol)
