May 14, 2023 - Sixth Sunday of Easter

Dear sisters and brothers,

Thank you for your prayers. Covid kept me from going to the Monastery for my retreat this year - it is very frustrating when the spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak - so is our human condition.

I want to congratulate all of our confirmands who received the sacrament last Sunday by Bishop Fabbro. A "big" thanks goes to all of the catechists and LEM's who guided these young people through their catechesis.

Welcome home to our Pilgrims on their return from Portugal, Spain, and France. I am sure that you return to us refreshed and filled with many graces.

On this 6th Sunday of Easter Jesus promises the Apostles and us not to leave us as orphans. "If you love me, you will keep my commandments." To serve is to put our love into action. We show our love, and we love through service to God and neighbour. But we need help, we cannot do it on our own.

If we feel "small" or inadequate before this work, we need to call on the Spirit that we have received. We are reassured that "I will not leave you orphans", and that "the one who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love them and reveal myself to them." This Holy Spirit that we have received, "abides with you (us) and will be in you."

With the abiding presence and strength of the Spirit, let us boldly live out our lives in Christ, showing our love for him by following his commandments daily, and in loving service to the other. We rejoice in the revelation of Christ to us in the Word and Sacrament and in the graced moments of our days and our lives.

Have a wonderful week ahead!

Fr. Christopher
