DIOCESAN PASTORAL COUNCIL

Earlier this year, Bishop Fabbro announced his intention to revive the Diocesan Pastoral Council, which is a consultative body made up of the Lay Faithful that will act as an additional advisory council for the Bishop of the Diocese of London. The members of the Council will identify pastoral needs, study them, and with prayer, discernment, and dialogue, present possible solutions for the Bishop to consider.

In the coming months the diocese will host a series of Town Hall Meetings for those who may be interested in being a part of this council. Following a period of discernment, two representatives from each deanery will be appointed to the council which will begin meeting in September 2022.

Please prayerfully consider attending the London region Town Hall Meeting on Tuesday, May 24 at 7:00PM at St. George's Parish Hall to get more information about the Diocesan Pastoral Council and how to submit a name for consideration to the Bishop. Please keep this initiative in your prayers as the church continues to respond to Pope Francis' call to engage synodally and give a more prominent voice to the laity in the discernment of future pastoral directions for our Diocese. More information and alternative Town Hall dates can be found at dol.ca/dpc. Additional information available at the Welcome Desk.

6th SUNDAY OF EASTER, YEAR C – THREE GIFTS FROM GOD

Helen Keller's indwelling God. The story is told that after Helen Keller's teacher, Annie Sullivan, had given her the names of physical objects in sign language, Miss Sullivan attempted to explain God and tapped out the symbols for the name "God". Much to Miss Sullivan's surprise, Helen spelled back, "Thank you for telling me God's name, Teacher, for He has touched me many times before." How could Helen Keller have known about God? Although she was blind and deaf, Helen Keller knew God, for God had shown Himself to her. That is "revelation" of an indwelling God about whom today's Scripture readings speak.

In our Gospel reading for this Sunday, God presents us with three gifts. The gift of the indwelling of the Trinity, "Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our dwelling with him."

The gift of the spirit to teach and remind, to remember. "The Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you."

And finally, the gift of Peace. "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give it to you. Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid."

Try, with God's help, to carve out some space for silence in your daily life. Ask God for this grace, to sit at the "feet" of the Holy Trinity that abides in each of us the Baptized. Simply "BE" in God's presence and let God do what he wishes.

Have a great week ahead! Father Christopher
