November 12th - 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

I want to welcome Deacon James Prins to St Justin's for this weekend, he will be delivering the homily at all of the Masses. James will be ordained to the Priesthood in April so please keep him in your prayers.

We celebrate with St. Francis - St. Martin's on Saturday as they observe the Feast of their patron St. Martin of Tours! We also observe on Saturday Remembrance Day.

We do not know the day or the hour of the return of the Master, so we always need to be prepared. "Keep awake therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour". This applies not only to the second coming of Christ, but also, for the hour of our death. Not to be morbid, but all of us will die. We need to make sure that our spiritual life is in order. Are we like the five wise virgins who had the extra supply of oil to meet the Lord at his arrival – or will we be caught short and miss him?

These are good questions to pray over. As we pray for the men and women who sacrificed their lives for our freedom, let us also pray for peace in our times.

Have a wonderful week.

Father Christopher
