November 6, 2022 - 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

A profound thanks to all who participated in the celebrations around the visit of the major relic of St. Andre Bessette and our Annual Memorial Mass on All Souls Day - to all who worked to hard to make these celebrations a beautiful experience - Thank You!

Here we are in November - truly a month for remembering. We started out with remembering all of the Saints on November 1st - all of those who by God's grace have "run the race and kept the faith" - who now reign with God forever in heaven. This is the feast of not only the known canonized saints - but of the "ordinary" saints, all those who reign with God in heaven now - our mothers and fathers, our sisters and brothers, friends and relatives - this is truly their day.

On the 2nd of November the Church earnestly prays for the souls of all her faithful departed and especially those in purgatory - that school of love which expands the heart to take in the fullness of the gift God wishes to give - eternal love.

"On the eleventh day of the eleventh month at the eleventh hour we shall remember" - Remembrance Day. With the rest of the commonwealth, we stop to reflect and pray for all who gave their lives in defense of our freedoms - and pray for peace in our world.

So November is truly a month of remembering. Remembering is also at the heart of our relationship with God. We are called to remember all that God has done for us (the covenants, the Law, the love he has shown to his people), we are called to remember his Word and Law - we are called to remember the sacrifice and resurrection of the Son - "do this in remembrance of me". Remember!

Have a wonderful week,

Fr. Christopher
