A Message from the Knights of Columbus

Thanks to everyone who came out and supported us at our October 13th Fish Fry event. So much support that we literally ran out of food, and for that we apologize!

Our next Fish Fry (and last one until 2024) will be on Friday, November 10th. This will be a special Remembrance Day event to honour our Armed Forces members. Keep an eye on future bulletins for details.

And we guarantee we won't run out of food!

Outreach Ministry

If you know someone who is lonely, sick, or you, yourself just need a friendly phone call to say 'hello' or pray with ... we are here for you!!! We value you more than words can say. Call Milda at 519-685-2407, leave your name and phone number, and someone from the Outreach Ministry will be happy to get in touch with you. Blessings.

Gospel Reading: Matthew 22:15-21

Commentary: The Pharisees often tried to trip Jesus up in the Gospels. We see them here making one of their most serious efforts toward entrapping him. The Pharisees were religious leaders and, in this case, they're even bringing in their political enemies, the Herodians, to help in their plot. The Herodians were the political powers in Israel at this time. They were, in essence, puppets of the Romans, who had control of Israel and were enemies of the Jews. The question about the tax to Caesar was intended to put Jesus between a rock and a hard place. If he condemned the tax, he would be in trouble with the Herodians who could charge him with treason for opposing paying taxes to the government. If he condoned the tax, then he would be in trouble with the Pharisees for being unfaithful to Judaism and its opposition to the Roman oppressors for the sake of religious purity and national independence. But Jesus saw right through their plot and responded in a way that avoided the entrapment. Jesus asked to see the coin used to pay the tax, which was a "denarius" that had the image of Tiberius Caesar, the Roman emperor at the time, stamped into it. Jesus used the term "image" as a word play here. Because the coin had Caesar's image on it, he pointed out it already belonged to Caesar. Therefore, there was no religious compromise in giving back to Caesar what already belonged to him. In this, Jesus also affirmed that it is right to fulfill our civil duties as Christians. At the same time, he affirmed that our highest and primary duty is to serve God and give Him what is due. By using the term image and saying we are to repay to God what belongs to God, Jesus revealed that we owe God everything. We are made in the image of God and, thus, belong completely to God. Therefore, we are called to offer our entire selves to God.

Taking it Home: Jesus calls us in today's Gospel to offer our entire lives to God because we are made in His image. Yet, our temptation is often to compartmentalize our lives, separating our faith from everything else we do. In the week ahead, reflect on how your faith can impact the way you live your everyday life, and think about what areas of your life, in particular, you need to let God come in.

Have a great week!

For Your Information

Our Annual Memorial Mass — Thursday, November 2 at 7 p.m.

We will be holding our annual Memorial Mass for those who have died (within the last year) at 7 p.m. at St. Justin's this year. If you have a loved one buried from St. Francis-St. Martin's, St. Justin's, or St. Leopold Mandic (or clergy from the parish came to the funeral home for a service), you should have recently received an invitation to this Mass. There will also be sign up on our website, as well as there was a bulletin insert in last weekend's bulletin for you to sign up in the month of October. These are available at the Welcome Desk.

St. Joseph's Hospitality Centre Thanks the St. Justin's Parish Community

A thank you card was received from the hospitality centre, it reads as follows: "To Our Friends at St. Justin's - I am writing this on behalf of St. Joseph's Hospitality Centre to express our gratefulness for your very generous donation of peanut butter, jam, coffee, coffee whitener, syrup, gift cards, and cash. Your continued support of our mission is appreciated by so many. A very heartfelt THANK-YOU!! From Tracey & the Team at St. Joe's"

The card is posted in the narthex.

Thanksgiving Appeal

Please see insert in this weekend's bulletin and give as generously as you are able.
The funds from this collection stay completely in the parish.
