NEW PASTORAL MINISTER

It is with great joy that I can announce that we have been successful in our search for a Pastoral Minister for St. Justin Martyr Parish - Catherine Leach. We were all saddened by the retirement of Suzanne Walton but also happy for her as she begins a new life in retirement.

I want to thank Suzanne for "hanging in there" while this process unfolded - she is truly dedicated to the Lord's flock. I also want to thank Gary Williams, Deacon Joe Manzara, Delia Pardo, Dan O'Brien, and Claire Bondy (from the Diocese) who joined me on the hiring team and conducted the interview. This was a difficult process made easier by many talented hands. We had 11 applicants and conducted 8 interviews. It was a blessing to speak with so many dedicated women and men.

After a week of orientation with Suzanne and the Pastoral Team, Catherine will join us - and I know that you will welcome her to this ministry as you have welcomed Fr. Mario and I. Congratulations Catherine and blessings to all who applied? A formal "goodbye" will be held for Suzanne in the near future.

Just a reminder - I want to see your prayers! On Sunday I asked that you compose a prayer for the successful implementation of the Family of Parishes (St. Francis of Assisi-St. Martin of ours, St. Justin Martyr and St. Leopold Mandic) so far I have received 3. Get your pen and paper, your word processor out and ask the Holy Spirit for inspiration! Send your compositions to cbourdeau@dol.ca
