Knights of Columbus Fish dinners - Thanks to all who enjoyed our September Fish dinner! Almost 80 friends, family, and neighbours came to dine and visit. Our next Fish Fry is on Friday, October 14th from 4:30 until 6 pm. Take-out will be available. Come devour haddock, fries (or baked potato), coleslaw, bun, dessert and drink, all for the low price of $15.00 (children for $5.00). If you don't like fish (gasp!), chicken fingers will be available instead. Enjoy the meal, support the Knights and meet your friends and neighbours. See you there!

September 25, 2022 - 26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"If they will not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded if someone should rise from the dead." These words are put on the lips of Abraham by Jesus in this parable, in response to the rich man trying to warn his brothers to escape the torments he is justly suffering for his sins of injustice.

We are presented by Jesus with the moving story of Lazarus and the Rich man. Now Lazarus is not the Lazarus who is the brother of Martha and Mary, this is another Lazarus, poor Lazarus. This Lazarus represents all of the poor, the marginalized, the sinner, the outcast, the socially unacceptable – all those who sit at the gates and fringes of life and society who beg and are ignored.

The Rich Man represents those who believe they have everything, in their minds they are self-sufficient, needing neither God nor Man. The Rich Man ignores the needs of Lazarus, not a crust of bread or cup of cold water does he offer. Our world is full of Lazarus's – those who are ignored by others but seen by God and loved. The aborted child, the starving child, the abused elderly, those lost in their minds, all are seen and heard as they cry out from the gates and doors of those who ignore them. Do we see them?

Even the guard dogs of the rich man have pity for Lazarus and lick his wounds. "In this parable the master refuses to help the poor sick man outside his gate – but his wild guard dogs will do what they can. They will lick his wounds. Their master will not help Lazarus. They will. Lazarus' quiet gentle spirit breaks through their (the dogs) violent hostility to humans and they care for him knowing that he cares for them."

Lazarus dies and is carried by the angels to the bosom of Abraham – the rich man dies and is buried. From Shaol, or the place of shadows the rich man cries out for Lazarus to be allowed to cool his tongue with water from the flames. This would be unjust of God to do; how did the rich man treat Lazarus on earth in his torment – he was ignored. Do we see others' pain?

The Rich man pleads, "Then at least send someone to warn my brothers that they need to amend their ways – that there is justice in the afterlife – and if the poor, the sick, the marginalized are mistreated or neglected – they shall have justice in paradise."

Abraham responds, which is really Jesus speaking to the Pharisees of his day in this story, "If they will not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded if someone should rise from the dead." Jesus knew that even his own resurrection would be denied by some – that his own post passion and resurrection ministry would be denied by some.

Even if someone came back from the dead, some would still not believe. This is true in the days of Jesus earthly ministry; this is true today.

If we believe in the Resurrection, we need to be people who see those on the fringes of life and do what we can for them. We need to acknowledge their presence and their needs. They too are the children of Abraham – they too are the Children of God.
