Fish Dinners are Back!

My goodness, September is here! With kids going back to school and most vacations over, we need to get ready for the Western Fair and our next Knights of Columbus Fish & Chip Dinner. On Friday, September 8th we will gather in the Fred Merrill Hall for good food, sparkling conversation, and friends we may not have seen all summer. Come and enjoy a complete dinner, with haddock fish (or chicken fingers), fries or baked potato, coleslaw, a roll, drink, and dessert. Eat-in or take-out is available from 4:30 pm until 6 pm.

See you there!

September 3rd - 22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Friends,

It's hard to believe that we are at the end of summer already with Labour Day upon us – how time flies. Hopefully we have all had time to set some time aside to relax and reflect.

In our Gospel this weekend we are reminded that the Lord's ways are not our ways. Sometimes we perceive with the mind of this world. We are reminded to "put on the mind of Christ" as St. Paul so eloquently said. To be able to see things, situations, the world, with the mind of Christ is a gift of the Holy Spirit. "Do not be conformed to this world but be transformed by the renewing of your minds." When we allow Christ to shape our perceptions we can truly see "what is good and acceptable and perfect".

On one hand we can certainly understand Peter's reaction to the Lord's prophecies about his suffering and death, he wants the Lord to be spared this humiliation and pain – and also himself and his fellow disciples. But on the other hand our ways are not always God's way. It was necessary that Christ should suffer and die to save us from our sins, from eternal death. To be a follower of Christ we must daily, "take up our cross and follow him".

Let us continue to strive with the help of the Spirit to conform our minds to Christ!

Have a wonderful Labour Day holiday!

Father Christopher
