DID YOU KNOW?

The purpose of silence before and during Mass:

Silence is sacred. No words can adequately express the mystery of God. In quiet, we can sense God's presence even more deeply than in sound. At certain times during Mass we fall silent to offer prayers, to reflect on the Scripture, or to thank God for the Eucharist.

\ Even before the celebration itself, it is commendable that silence be observed in the church, in the sacristy, and in the vesting room, and in adjacent areas, so that all may dispose themselves to carry out the sacred action in a devout and fitting manner (GIRM 45).* Some time of silence before Mass begins helps everyone enter the Mass devoutly. In silent prayer, we think about the role we are to play, the songs we will sing, the prayers we will offer, the Scriptures we will hear, the presence of Jesus Christ, who comes to us in the sacrament to nourish us at this Mass and throughout the week. His holiness renders us speechless.

\ The Liturgy of the Word is to be celebrated in such a way as to favour meditation and so any kind of haste such as hinders recollection is clearly to be avoided (GIRM 56).* In the silence after each reading, we reflect on what this means in our life, what God is asking of us at this moment.

In the silence following the Homily, we take time to meditate on what we have heard.

\ When the distribution of Communion is over, if appropriate, the Priest and the faithful pray quietly for some time (GIRM 88).* The sacrament of Communion deserves a word of thanks to God.
