For the Twenty-Eighth Sunday of Ordinary Time we have the powerful story about Jesus healing ten lepers and only one of them coming back to give thanks, and that one was the foreigner. It reminds us of the importance of gratitude

ST. RAPHAEL GREEN CORNER

October 16th: World Food Day
Pope Francis writes: "The biblical texts are to be read in their context, with an appropriate hermeneutic, recognizing that they tell us to "till and keep" the garden of the world (cf. Gen 2:15). "Tilling" refers to cultivating, plowing or working, while "keeping" means caring, protecting, overseeing and preserving. This implies a relationship of mutual responsibility between human beings and nature. Each community can take from the bounty of the earth whatever it needs for subsistence, but it also has the duty to protect the earth and to ensure its fruitfulness for coming generations." Laudato Si' #67

Thanksgiving weekend provides us with an opportunity to be thankful for the Bountiful Harvest of food that we enjoy. It is also an opportunity for us to learn to develop a Seasonal Mindset and buy locally grown produce and foods. Farmers markets and grocery stores alike are filled with seasonal produce. In learning to use the food that is seasonally available we decrease our carbon footprint instead of purchasing foods that come from thousands of miles away.

This Thanksgiving Weekend, take the opportunity to visit a local farmers market and thank the farmers who grow our food. Take a look around you and give thanks to God for the beautiful part of the Earth where we live that is filled with an abundance of fresh food and fresh water!

"We are created to read the book of creation so that we know the author of life"

Ilia Delio, Franciscan Sister and Theologian
