FRIAR RETO'S REFLECTION

The summary of Paul's understanding of the term "body of Christ" occurs in 1 Corinthians 10:16–17: "Is not the cup of thanksgiving which we bless a sharing in the blood of Christ? And is not the bread we break a sharing in the body of Christ? Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body for we all partake of the one bread." So Paul teaches that full unity with Christ is intimately linked with sharing the "one bread" of his body. And union with the "one bread" of his body is also linked with a full communion with his Body, the Church. (Source: Catholic Answers)

SPIRITUAL REFLECTIONS WITH ARCHBISHOP MULHALL

Wednesdays; 7:00 pm

St. Mary's Cathedral (279 Johnson Street)

I look forward to our time together of spiritual reflection in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. Throughout my priesthood and especially in the past several years, these moments of prayer and reflection together have been deeply rewarding for me.

I propose to reflect with you on the Beatitudes of St. Matthew's Gospel Chapter 5 as well as a series of Psalms of the Old Testament which we pray each day at Mass. As usual, we will also give time to the liturgical celebrations of Lent/Easter as we pass through the year.

It is good to remember that there is no starting point or end point as in a series of lectures or an academic course. Though we refer to previous reflections, we repeat our thoughts frequently so that anyone can join at any stage or miss weeks without losing any necessary points or developments. I like to think of our reflections as one long continuous series of reflections on a mystery from countless starting points. All these reflections I pray will be beneficial for us at whatever time of life or stage of our spiritual pilgrimage.
